Drank all your beer at the war? Don't have the equipment and or knowledge? Just want hang out a brew beer? What are you waiting for? Brew with Thorolf!!!

Take home wort or wait a week or two and take home beer. One must contribute to the production costs and participate in the brewing process to be eligible for product. Once the yeast is pitched its beer and I can't sell beer. One must also provide ones own transport container for wort or packaging, ie Primaries or carboys for wort and bottles or keg for beer.

-The Next open brew day is tentatively scheduled for Saturday October 18. December 25th is a little over 2 months away and the appropriate beers take time.

-The second open brew day is tentatively scheduled for Saturday November 22 Winter is coming Lets brew something hearty. What exactly to be determined.

-The third open brew day is tentatively scheduled for December 13. Finally, lager temps for lager beer. I'm thinking Maibock or Helles.

Fencing Tourney

Save my Sheep!

This tourney shall take place in the rocky crags outside the Clan MacEanraig tavern, the Bloody Kneecap. The format will be a round robin for the first three parts, then by invitation only to defend the sheep. Keep in mind that the Marshal in Charge is challenged in accounting and can be bribed to assure a fencer has a score of 1 pt if needed...

The tourney will start with all fencers facing off against each other in a round robin, 3 to 5 bouts each, depending upon the size of the field of fencers. The field will be on a slope with some obstructions and perhaps trees, so terrain will play a bigger part than in usual tourneys. The first round of fights will be with single sword only, the second round shall be with sword and targe (a buckler of EK regulation size limits to 24" round or less), the third round shall be with sword and shillelag (stick or cane) with the last series using a plushie sheep and single sword. Default weapon options if the fencers are not qualified will be single sword. Total scores will be tallied as follows: first blood in the best of 3-5 series gets 2 pts(this is awarded only once per pair of combatants), killing an opponent 1 pt, and a double kill will count as -1pt for both fencers. Each fencer will be scored in each series of bouts, and only those fencers with a positive score may proceed to defend my sheep.

For the last part, in defense of the sheep, a sheep may be carried or placed on the ground (in the case of fencers not qualified in soft parry they must place the sheep on the ground 10ft. from any edge of the list field OR carried behind their person with the off hand). Once placed on the ground, sheep CANNOT move nor be picked up again. Sheep are not to be abused, kicked, verbally molested or mistreated when on the ground! If an opponent stabs a loose sheep with their sword, it is considered dead and the sheep's defender loses the bout. Sheep that are stepped on or kicked by any fencer will run away, and the defender of said sheep loses. Sheep CAN be used as a soft parry and will not die if used as such. (these are MY weird sheep...) This part of the tourney is a round robin single elimination, courtesy and chivalry to be shown to an opponent who loses an arm or leg. A double kill is a double kill, no do overs.

There are prizes for each of the top placements in the four aspects of this tourney, let's see who can save my sheep the best!

From the Coronet

Unto the populace of An Dubhaigeainn, do your Baron and Baroness send greetings!

With the passing of September so does the reign of Brennen and Caoilfhionn; and with the start of October, so do Their Majesties, Edward and Thyra, return to reign anew. Vivant to two set of wonderful monarchs.

Arrows and Ales (our September event), while lightly attended was quite a lot of fun, and ample with energetic newcomers – 14 of them, in fact. We also welcome a new Archery Champion – Lord Eanraig the Bonesetter – who takes on the ‘title’ Uber duck as he currently holds not one (fencing), or two (Bardic) – but three champion positions.

We plan for our next event the Baronial Birthday: St Andrew Returns to Scotland, to take place on November 15, 2014. We hope all will attend as we select a new Heavy Weapons champion and celebrate another anniversary.

As we all get ready for the coming winter holidays, we need to look toward the spring calendar. If anyone is interested in running, or to help run an event, come to the Baronial business meeting and let us know.

As always, we hope that the populace of An Dubhaigeainn will come out and play with the Barony both at home and abroad. We look forward to seeing you.

In Service,
David and Suzanne
